Re: TESOL Indonesia International Conference 2019 – Acceptance of Abstract for Presentation

Thank you for submitting your Abstract.

We would like to officially inform you that your paper entitled “The Challenges of the Teacher Students in Developing ESP Teaching Materials” has been reviewed by our Senior Associate Editors and is accepted for presentation at the TESOL Indonesia International Conference presented by TESOL Asia, The Asian EFL Journal, and University of Mataram. The Conference will be held on March 28-30, 2019 at the University of Mataram in Lombok, Indonesia.

Abstracts, Biographies, and Photos will be published in the printed Conference book.

Authors have the option to have the paper published in one of the following Scopus-indexed journals: (1) The Asian EFL Journal, (2) The Asian ESP Journal, (3) TESOL International Journal, (4) English as an International Language Journal.

Upon preliminary review, your research is qualified to be published in the journal you nominated: non-quarterly edition of The Asian ESP Journal, considering that the full paper to be submitted fulfills the publication guidelines set by the Board of Editors. (Please see succeeding page for the initial publication guidelines. Authors will also receive final guidelines during the Conference and in writing after the Conference.)

Authors of accepted papers are invited to visit the Conference website www.tesol.id/2019conference for more information regarding the specifics of the Conference.

To confirm presentation and publication, kindly refer to the payment voucher sent together with this letter.

Sincerely,

Dr. Paul Robertson
Conference Chair

CONFERENCE PAPERS FOR PUBLICATION

Rules and Guidelines:

The following points will be detailed at the conference as well.

1. Authors/Presenters are limited to two (2) abstracts as primary author or co-author. Each abstract may have a maximum of two (2) co-authors. All authors will have their papers published in the journal they have selected and paid a corresponding conference fee for.
2. Deadline of full paper submission is on JUNE 30, 2019.
3. The papers may be up to 7,000 words in length excluding index- bio (longer papers will be accepted – 7,000 is a general guide line). Papers with over 10,000 words must be checked with us first.
4. Sample guidelines will be emailed to all those who attend.
5. A Publishers session will be held at the conference by one of the editors and should be attended by the authors.
7. Before papers are sent to us, authors are required to do / take note of the following:
  - a) Do a spell and grammar check.
  - b) Do a plagiarism check and notify us of any false positives (many unique papers come up as 'plagiarized' on some of the checks even though they are clearly not).
  - c) Do NOT refer to Academia.edu papers as a reference source.
  - d) Paper must not be published in Academia.edu or any other journal, nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.
  - e) Self -citation is not allowed unless that citation is in an ELE journal.
  - f) You must place two citations from our ELE journals in your paper's index.
8. Your paper will be reviewed by two reviewers and any problems will be referred back to you for attention.
9. As such we can NOT promise and do not promise any specific publishing date although we will do our best to publish it within 3 months of receipt of the final accepted version in the journal you have nominated.
10. It is very important to understand that SCOPUS is a third-party company with own rules and regulations. We do not promise or guarantee that your paper will be indexed by SCOPUS.
11. Full paper submissions must be received by JUNE 30, 2019. Papers will be published starting on the second half of 2019 until the first half of 2020. A particular month for publication cannot be granted until our double blind review is complete and any changes necessary have been made.
